1. The shipyard at Gdynia has recently completed a motor ship of the "river ship" class. This ship, the MS. NOGAT is about 500 deadweight tons and is identical with other ships in her class, such as the NYSA, PILICA, SAN, etc.
2. Only two Soviet technicians are now at the Gdynia shipyard, all the others having returned to the USSR. The larger shipyard at Gdansk, however, still has about 70 Soviet specialists, but even there, 20 have recently returned to the USSR.

Comment: This class of ship is named for Polish rivers, such as Nysa, Pilica, San, etc.
